Hello Cousin,

Patsy I think you are the silliest thing I have ever sat my eyes on. That mouth of yours is bigger than an elephants. HA. HA. Not really. You and Ann and Francis have a fight to the finish and may the best girl win. (Don't be silly) signed Patsy

How Tommy that you can live without him and maybe he will wake up. Before you get 65. Well I have put down everthing I can think of. So keep on being the mushy younger gals we have come to call that girl. Marlen

Dedication

Along life's highways we have found one who has understood our problems, encouraged us when we were disheartened, listened to our complaints with endless patience, inspired us with confidence and enriched our dreams of success.

The time she has devoted to Grainger High School has brought development and great achievements through the Kay-Aitch-Ess and Ki-Hi which cannot be exceeded.

For the privilege of working with her and just simply knowing her, we, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and fifty-five, dedicate this, the thirtieth volume of KAY-AITCH-ESS, to . . .

Highlights

As you glance through this book, both sad and happy memories will come to mind. You will find pictured here sports highlights, classroom procedures, club activities and many friendly faces.

If this book represents a typical high school year and if you read and enjoy its pages, then all the work and headadches that have helped build your KAY-AITCH-ESS have been worthwhile.

Patsy.

I've enjoyed having you as a friend these past school years. Even though we've had our up's and downs you're still a swell kid. (mean one at that time I want to wish you the best of luck with those boys. (Tommy Lakey, Tommy Phillips, Gary Hocutt, and also Marvin Roberts). Don't smooch too much and get their hopes up too high or they'll drop you like a hot Potato - (Understand) But sincerly Patsy - you're a swell girl and you'll go a long ways in this old world of ours. When you get out of school and have your name in lights thrown across the world, think of poor little ole me trawling over the world. (with Charles L. ? Jasper).

Maybe you, and your fellow, me and Charles can get together after he comes home and go out and raise pure HELL. You'd probably like that, wouldn't you?

Well I can't think of anything else to say except that you're a cute and a real swell, silly Kid. Stay real cool youngun. Stay sweet and don't forget -

Love ya always.

Student Body
Grainger High School
Kinston, North Carolina

Dear Students:

This issue of the "Kay-Aitch-Ess" marks its 30th anniversary. As, in later years, you leaf through the book you will recall many of the most pleasant memories of your life. You will be proud to say that you attended high school with some of the students and, of many others, you will wonder where they are and what they are doing.

We are proud of our school and of its accomplishments. The students are cooperative and the faculty excellent. We hope that as you read the "Kay-Aitch-Ess" you will remember that each and every member of the student body has a definite role, whether large or small, to play in life. It determines what you will get out of high school and of life in the future.

To the seniors we give our best wishes for a successful future. The under classmen, we hope, will try to emulate the good examples which you have set.

Sincerely yours,

John H. Horne

Student

Student teaching at Grainger High School has been an opportunity to gain practical classroom experience under expert supervision. During student teaching one can learn about the actual work of the teacher in the classroom, in the guidance program, and in out-of-class experiences. One can learn about the teacher's relations to other school workers, and about his community responsibilities.

Teaching

Student teaching is a laboratory experience in which one can plan and develop learning experiences with pupils and secure help when he needs it. The ideas secured in previous courses can be focused upon actual school problems as one works with pupils in a realistic situation. Student teaching is definitely a significant part of a professional program designed to help one become a competent teacher.

Over the past year we've had a lot of fun together and I'll never forget the junior-senior at the beach with you. You're a real sweet and cute girl. I never really mean't it when I said you were peculiar. Take care of yourself and keep all the boys in line especially T. L. + G. H. ~~Heather~~ In the years to come remember (1) sweetheart ring (2) junior-senior (3) nigger dolls + (4) beach parties. Lots of luck and best wishes.

HISTORY IN REVIEW

Dear Patsy,

You are my very best girlfriend. I wouldn't do anything to make you mad at me. At least I would try not to. I like you very much and I hope you like me as much. It really has been enjoyable knowing you these few months, but it seems like a lifetime. You are a very cute and sweet girl and I hope you stay that way.

I do hope that you and I both get out of mix-up we're in. We have been in the same boat. We are both so mixed-up in our minds, we just don't know which way to turn. Maybe someday we'll know.

I hope we never really get mad at each other because we have such a bad temper and we might kill each other. HaHaHa. I don't go around with you just because I want to see Skippy. I go around with you because I like you. Although I do like Skippy. Well, I ~~will~~ wish you the best of luck throughout the years.

Best Wishes
"Glenda Miggs"

The connecting link . . .

Here, loyal football fans of Grainger High School take time at the half for a soft drink. These concession stands are operated by and are a main project of the Student Council.

At last, the long-awaited intercommunication system is installed at our school! We have much enjoyed the morning announcements, devotionals, and music broadcast to our rooms this year.

Student Council

The Grainger High School Student Council is the governing body of the school. The president of the student body is elected by popular vote of the students in the spring and is a rising senior. The other officers are elected by the Student Council members. All grades, seven through twelve, have representatives in this governing body elected by their class.

The most active organization in the school, its projects are many. This year, under the leadership of President Griff Wooten, the council sent delegates to the North Carolina Student Council Congress in Shelby, N. C., ran the concession stand for home ball games, sponsored a Homecoming Queen, was in charge of an art exhibit, held the annual Star-Room Dance, participated in Americanism Week, and sponsored Twirp Season climaxed by a Sadie Hawkins Day Dance. Most important of all was installation of the intercommunication system which the council had been working toward for the past ten years.

Marshals

In Grainger High School the highest recognition for scholarship one can receive is to become a marshal. From the rising senior class four marshals are selected, the one with the highest average serving as chief marshal. The three rising juniors and the two rising sophomores with the highest scholastic average represent their classes as marshals.

These individuals are selected each spring to marshal at commencement activities and other school functions during the next year.

Public Speakers' Club

The purpose of the Public Speakers' Club is to promote an interest in better speaking. A speech on some famous American is required before a person may become a member.

This year the club with the National Forensic League has co-sponsored a forum and a mock Congress.

Through participation in speaking contests of different kinds, members earn twenty honor points, which makes them eligible to join the National Forensic League, an honorary society.

The Leonora Watts' Chapter of the Future Teachers of America was chartered this year under the auspices of the North Carolina Education Association. Members of this newly-formed organization were taken in on the basis of expressed interest, personality, and scholastic standing.

Some of this year's objectives were substitute teaching and attending NCEA meetings.

Members of the Future Teachers of America get practice at teaching Harvey School's fifth graders. These girls hope to become elementary teachers.

Senior Tri-Hi-Y

High standards of character, scholarship, and leadership qualify junior and senior girls to be elected into the Senior Girls' Tri-Hi-Y. Members are selected by a vote of the teachers, advisors, Mrs. Dewey Sutton and Mrs. Emmett Morton, and present members. A majority vote of two-thirds is required for entrance.

The creed of the club is, "To stay pure through the eyes of others."

The most important project undertaken was providing food and clothing for a needy family throughout the year. Monthly church attendance as a group was another project for the club.

Dramatics Club

The Dramatics Club of Grainger High School tries to give all students who are interested in any form of dramatic work a chance to further their interest. The members of the club select the division with which they would like best to work—scenery or radio-drama. Students in the scenery group work with stage sets, lighting and properties. Radio-drama members have an excellent opportunity to obtain actual experience in this field.

This year the club gave several one-act plays under the direction of Mrs. Dewey Sutton, Miss Annie Laurie Lowery, Mrs. John Kelly, and Mr. James Hall, the advisors.

Jo, Mary, and Miss Macy tackle knotty page make-up problem.

Business conference—Betty Jean, Sandra, and Mrs. Hardy.

"Mary, when is the final deadline?" "Miss Macy, will Friday's game go in this issue?" "Please — somebody tell me something for 'Jo Crows'" "Yeow —I've got four more ad dummies due by three o'clock!"

Deadline fever, inky fingers, proofreader's fatigue — all plague the KI-HI staff, a group of aspiring and perspiring journalists, most of whom have been trained in journalism class.

The staff, predominantly juniors and seniors, turn out a ten-page monthly paper, which gives coverage to all school activities. Most photography and much art work is done by students. All editorial material is written by students.

For the first time in several years a local firm has printed the KI-HI, making possible late news coverage.

A highlight of the year was a trip for several staff members to the North Carolina Scholastic Press Conference in Chapel Hill.

Library Club

The library class is made up of students taking library as an elective course. This course carries one-half unit scholastic credit. These students study a library manual and serve as library assistants one period daily. The class meets each Wednesday at activity period for class discussion and explanation of work.

The purpose of the course is to teach students how to use all libraries, to help develop the reading habit, and to provide opportunity for the practice of citizenship and social service.

Concert Band

The sixty piece Concert Band is composed of students who have demonstrated their musicianship and earned the right to perform with this fine group. During the past year they gave four formal concerts, appeared in two music contests, and gave several programs for local organizations. Members of this group were invited to clinics held in the eastern part of the state, and furnished soloists and ensembles who made many appearances during the year. The early winter concert featured all the instrumental students in the school system, and was climaxed by the performance of The Man Who Invented Music, a bed-time story for children from six to sixty.

Marching Band

The colorful marching band of Grainger High is well known for its many appearances at football games and parades. Among the year's highlights were the trips to the Raleigh-Kinston game and to the Shrine Parade.

Making its debut this year was the popular Junior Varsity Band, which presented several half-time shows, and participated in parades, exciting favorable comment wherever they appeared.

Football 1954 Varsity

The 1954 Grainger High School football team proved to be a fairly successful outfit, as Coach Frank Mock molded his veterans and newcomers into a well-rounded squad. The Red Devils of 1954 finished the season with a record of six wins, three losses, and one tie. Although the Devils didn't win the Northeastern Conference title, they flashed their power by defeating Raleigh, Wilson, and Goldsboro, three of the eastern AAA games.

Probably the most exciting game of the season was the 18-13 win over Raleigh, when the Red Men fought back in the last four minutes to win over the capital city eleven.

Buddy Potter, Poo Rochelle, Fletcher Baker, and Rowland Everette were named on the Northeastern conference all-star squad and Potter and Baker were placed on the eastern AA team.

Before each game, captains were elected but at the end of the season Potter and Baker were elected honorary captains. These two boys were also named to play in the East-West all star game in August '55.

Varsity Basketball

With five returning lettermen from the 1953-54 squad, the runner-up in state AA tournament, and six other fine cagers, Coach Amos Sexton, as usual, produced one of the finer basketball teams in eastern Carolina. As the annual went to press, the Red Devils of Grainger High School had won 17 games, lost one and were battling with Greenville for the Northeastern Conference title.

Included among the victims of the Red Men were Wilmington, Rocky Mount, Fayetteville, and Goldsboro, all AAA teams.

Poo Rochelle, Robert Whaley, and Buddy Potter were the chief point-getters for the Devils. Outstanding floor play was exhibited by Darwin Williams, John Carter, and Marshall Happer. Among the reserves, Billy Evans showed greatest promise. As in football, captains were elected before each game.

Junior Varsity Basketball

As in recent years Coach Charles Lee's Junior Varsity squad continued to be the pride of the Northeastern Conference. The team was led by such high scorers as Eion Faelten, Charles Lewis, and David Adkins and such dependable floor men as Alley Hart, Steve Creech, and Dorsett Clement.

The Red Imps were undefeated when the annual went to press, having won 18 games. Six of these games were against AAA competition, one against a Lenoir County varsity team, and ten against conference foes.

Varsity "K" Club

To gain membership in the Varsity "K" Club, an athlete must have played sixteen quarters of Varsity football, thirty-two quarters of Varsity basketball, or five games of Varsity baseball. Upon entrance to the club, each member receives a "K" jacket, which the club buys from the profits from the concession stand operated by the group during basketball season.

Varsity Cheerleaders

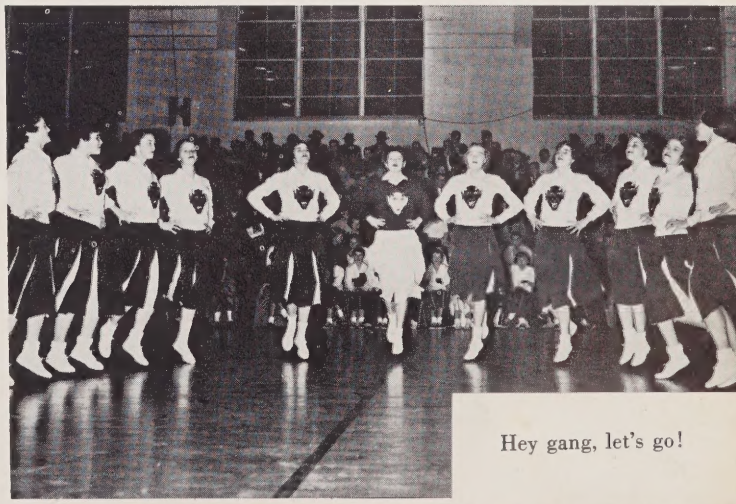
"Chief" Ann runs through fundamental skill of cheerleading with Marie Sutton and Leafy Pollock.

Cheerleaders participate in Homecoming.

Because of the hard work that goes into choosing a squad and keeping it in shape, Kinston cheerleaders get a deeper satisfaction than glory.

Each spring a group of ten girls is chosen by the recently elected "chief" and Colon Byrd, Advisor. Pep, spirit, and ability to learn yells are main factors required of each girl.

School spirit, good sportsmanship and team spirit are principal objectives of this squad, which is considered one of the best in the state and which won first place in conference competition.



Hey gang, let's go!

After the game

After vigorous tryouts each fall, thirteen girls are chosen to serve as Junior Varsity cheerleaders for the coming school year. Mr. Colon Byrd, advisor, and the Varsity Chief select the most outstanding girl to serve as chief.

These girls practice several times a week to learn new yells and movements necessary for cheerleading. In 1954 the junior cheerleaders won the first annual Northeastern Cheerleader Conference trophy in their division.

YOU'RE THE DETERMINING FACTOR

It's been a long trek for some and a short one for others. But now that your high school days are drawing to a close, you can probably look back and see that these relatively sheltered years have been just what you have made them.

All of life is that way.

If you keep in mind that you get out of life proportionately what you put into it, you can't go wrong.

It's been nice seeing you around school this year. Keep everything neat and try not to break too many hearts. Maybe we will become better friends next year.

Patsy,

I don't know what I'm going to say to fill up this page but I'm going to say it anyway.

I have really enjoyed going around with you these past few years. Having someone to tell their ~~troubles~~ troubles to is swell sometimes. If they haven't got a big mouth. +1A

I hope you get a boy hooked after a while. Believe me it sure is nice, maybe "B" and you can get together this summer. Hope so, don't you?

I guess we will both be on the swimming team this year. I guess swimming was made for both of us. It seems the same complications arise every year. But we always end-up swimming.

Well I hope you decide who you want to take to the spring concert before it comes. [redacted] I have about run out of space so I had better quit.

Keep all those "girl chasers" in there place and soon you will get one of them,

Love & stuff,

Patsy, sure has been nice knowing you this year. Keep smiling and I guess you'll be a success in life. You are a mighty fine person and I'm glad I've had the chance to know you. Good luck and happiness always.

Patsy, I hope you get what you want.

Love ya'
Faye

Patsy

It has been a pleasure being in your English class and sharing the kindness of miss O'Brien. I Hope you have a nice summer and I will see you next year. Best Wish

Patsy,

It's really been wonderful running around with you this year. We've really shook the "ol prison" haven't we?

Just think next year juniors and working on Jr.-Sr.

Best of luck always to a swell gal. I hope you have better luck with your boyfriends than I have.

Barbara M.

P.S.- Since I wrote the first part of this ~~thing~~ things have happened to change my minds about the last paragraph above. So change it to: "I hope you have as much luck with your boyfriends as I have with mine!"
